

Summary

No code of ethics, conduct and practice can replace the behaviour of an individual. However, this code is intended to help you focus on areas of risk and provide you with guidance in fostering a culture based on maintaining the integrity and reputation of the club and protecting the dignity of all people associated with it. Fundamental to this principle is the right to have a sporting environment where each member should be able to say to themselves and others...

“Nenagh Éire Óg Hurling & Football is a club that shows genuine respect for each individual member and I am proud to be part of it”

We will ensure best practice throughout the club by disseminating this code of ethics, conduct & practice to club officials, officers, members, mentors, and players. We encourage you to review this information and familiarise yourself with the standards expected in Nenagh Éire Óg Hurling & Football GAA club.
