

Part 1 Club Activities

As a Club we are fully committed to safeguarding the well-being of all club officials, officers, members, mentors, and players. Every individual in the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for their rights, safety and welfare, and conduct themselves in a way that reflects the principles of the club. In particular the rights, dignity and worth of every person must be respected and no person should feel threatened, vilified or insulted.

All members of the club are subject to consequences which may lead to discipline or possible termination of membership of the GAA as deemed necessary by the club Executive due to failure to comply with this code of conduct. All members agree to abide by these rules as part of their membership / registration. It is the responsibility of all members to be familiar with the guidelines set forth in the code of conduct and for parents to explain and promote this code of conduct with their own children.

Code of Conduct – Club Officials / Officers

Club Officials / Officers should be full members of Cumann Luthchleas Gael (C.L.G.) and have full knowledge of the Rules and Regulations of the Association and be bounded by them (in line with the Manuals). The qualities portrayed by Officials / Officers of the club are:

- Knowledge and acceptance of GAA ideals
- Act within the Rules and the Law of Cumann Luthcleas Gael (C.L.G.)
- Uphold the constitution of C.L.G. in the spirit as well as in the law
- Provide leadership and motivate people to work for the aims and ideals of C.L.G.
- Good community standing
- Dedication
- Integrity and Respect in Relationships
- High standards of organisation
- Moral courage and willingness to devote time

Code of Conduct – Players / Mentors / Club members

Everyone makes a commitment to the success of the club and shows mutual respect for all. Everyone involved must work together in the preparation, be committed to the cause, and share in the enjoyment of competing and representing the club and the parish of Nenagh. To promote best behaviour, it is necessary to outline our expectations regarding what is acceptable behaviour, and these are outlined as follows.

- Club membership must be paid at the start of the season.
- Players should endeavour to attend all training sessions
